

SNOW KING COMES FOR LATE VISIT

GIVES US SOMETHING NEW WITHOUT THE SUN.

Weather Bureau Records No Previous Fall of Snow as Late in the Season as April.

The State, 3rd. It snowed in Columbia yesterday for the third time in the last four days. The fall began about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and continued until nearly dark. The flakes, although they were thick and fast, melted as soon as they touched the ground.

The snow yesterday was the first ever recorded in April by the weather bureau in Columbia. The weather station's record for the snow late in the spring was broken by the slight fall on Tuesday. On March 18, 1893, the books of the station show that a little snow fell. The snow early in the morning last Wednesday established a new record as far as the station was concerned, and this was smashed by the fall yesterday afternoon.

A diary kept by a Columbian who died many years ago contains an entry to the effect that snow fell in this city on April 15, 1849. The diary is in the possession of one of the man's descendants. The records of Columbia station of the weather bureau extend only to 1887.

The temperature in Columbia was 35 degrees yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and 35 degrees last night at 8 o'clock. At 10 o'clock last night the temperature had risen one degree. The wind held steadily in the northeast.

The center of the present storm which has brought snow with it was over Charleston last night. As soon as the storm passes out to sea there will be a prospect of fair weather again.

It was considered improbable last night that fruit and vegetation around Columbia had been hurt seriously by the unseasonable weather.

Chester—Chester is in the grip of a blinding snowstorm tonight. Snow began to fall about 6 o'clock. On account of the rain of the afternoon the snow is melting as rapidly as it falls. The weather is not cold and a freeze is not anticipated.

Johnston—Snow began to fall here shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon and late tonight is still falling. Although the ground is very wet from rain the fall is so heavy that at times the earth gets almost white.

Darlington—The latest snow in years, if not the latest ever seen here, is falling thick and fast in very large quantities. The snow started about 5:30 o'clock and at 7 o'clock is continuing to fall. Because it has been raining through most of the day the ground is wet and the snow is melting as rapidly as it falls.

Winnsboro—The third snowfall of the spring began falling here in the afternoon subsequent to a cold driving rain in the morning, with a fair prospect of the ground being covered.

Ridgeway—Ridgeway was visited by very unsettled weather today, rain falling steadily during the morning and about 4:30 p. m. turning into snow, which fell for about two hours, at times coming down heavily. On account of rain the snow melted about as fast as it fell.

Branchville—Something unusual for this season of the year is being experienced in the weather this afternoon. Snow has been mingled with the rain which began falling since morning. This is one of the coldest spells known to Branchville in several years. Much fear is being felt for the fruit and early crops.

Orangeburg—Snow began to fall in Orangeburg at about 4 o'clock this afternoon and has been falling steadily since that time. Rain fell during the morning and afternoon until the snow began. The snow is melting as fast as it falls. A small snow fell in Orangeburg on Wednesday morning.

Sumter—Beginning at about 4:30 o'clock this afternoon a snow fall, which for lateness of season and intensity of flakes has eclipsed thus far anything remembered by the oldest inhabitants, began all of a sudden and continued steadily for hours.

Bella—Do you mean to say he hasn't proposed yet?
Ella—Not in so many words.
Bella—Well, why didn't you accept him?—Judge

REUNION ORDERS ISSUED AT AIKEN

GEN. TEAGUE WRITES OF MEETING IN COLUMBIA.

Miss Martha Bonham, of Anderson, is Sponsor—Miss McGowan Maid of Honor.

Orders for the Confederate reunion to be held in Columbia this month have been issued by B. H. Teague, of Aiken, major general, commanding the South Carolina division, United Confederate Veterans, as follows: "The State reunion of the South Carolina division, United Confederate Veterans, will be held in Columbia Thursday and Friday, April 22 and 23.

"The official ladies of the division for 1915 are Miss Martha A. Bonham, Anderson, sponsor; Misses Olive McGowan, Columbia, and Carolina S. Ginkler, Eutawville, maids of honor, and Mrs. R. S. Ligon, Anderson, matron of honor. The commander requests that the names of the official ladies of the brigades and camps present at the Columbia reunion be put upon cards and handed to him during the first day of the reunion.

"The reunion orator is a gifted son of South Carolina, the Rev. Wm. E. Boggs, D. D., now of Atlanta. It will be worth attending this occasion to hear his address.

"For information as to board and lodging, apply to W. H. Jones, chairman of information and house committee. Those who desire free entertainment should write A. J. Bethea, chairman of entertainment committee. "As the time for the State reunion is near at hand, the camps should meet at once, elect delegates, appoint their official ladies and send in their names without delay.

"The dues for the division are 5 cents per member, and the camps are requested to forward the same promptly to Adj. Gen. S. E. Welch, 77 Market street, Charleston. The dues for the United Confederate Veteran organization are 10 cents per member, and must be sent direct to Gen. Wm. E. Mickle, P. O. Box H. 97, New Orleans, La. If your dues are not paid your camp will not be entitled to vote at either reunion.

"The annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held in the historic city of Richmond, where the old soldiers have always been cordially welcomed, on June 1, 2, and 3, 1915. One of the interesting events of this reunion will be the formal opening of the Confederate hall—'The Battle Abbey' of the Confederacy.

"The headquarters of South Carolina division will be at Murphy's hotel. Those who wish other quarters should address Col. Charles T. Loefer, Richmond, Va., and those desiring free entertainment should apply to David A. Brown, 607 E. Main street, Richmond, Va.

"Reduced rates will be given on all railroads to both State and general reunions.

"It is with deep sorrow that the commander announces the death of another of the division staff, that of the surgeon general, T. G. Croft, who on March 10, crossed over the river and now rests under the shade of the trees."

MAKE FORD CAR IN TEN MINUTES AT EXPOSITION

Miniature Factory in Operation Part of Motor Exhibit in San Francisco.

San Francisco, April 2.—While the great number of automobile exhibits at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition has created wide comment among the throngs who have visited this portion of the great world's fair the showing made by the Pacific Coast agency for the Ford car has so far created the greatest mechanical impression. The Ford officials have erected a miniature factory where they are turning out eighteen cars daily between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 in the afternoon. The exhibit is one of the most instructive and interesting to be seen in the big palace of Transportation, and Frank Vivian, upon whose shoulders fell the task of "making good" with the exhibit, has filled the bill wonderfully.

Wonderful as it may seem, the Ford workmen are turning out a complete car every ten minutes. This means six cars an hour and eighteen cars for the three hours that the plant is in operation. Vivian complains only of one thing—that he can not do better. The hundreds of units which go to make up the Ford are delivered at the exposition grounds after 11 o'clock at night ready for action the next morning. There are 26 men employed at the exhibit, each one having a certain part of the work to do.

Car is Completed.

The frames are placed on a traveling rails, six at a time and as they are pulled slowly along by a chain each mechanic fits his part to the frame until as it reaches the end of the rail a perfect Ford emerges ready to be driven out of the building to the downtown salesrooms of the Ford agency. Not a detail is neglected in fitting out the car, the gas being placed in the tank, water in the radiator and tires inflated before the machine rolls off onto the floor.

As fast as the cars are completed a mechanic takes the wheel and ten minutes after the first part of the work has been started the car rolls out of the Transportation Building on its way to the salesroom.

The Pacific Kissel Car Company under the direction of J. H. Eagle has perhaps the largest number of cars on exhibit at the fair. The entire displays run well over $30,000 and includes every type of car handled by this concern. Briscoe and Kissel cars are the feature of the pleasure car display with the Federal trucks accounting for the heavier working vehicle.

The Chalmers exhibit is another large display. The Earle C. Anthony Co., Inc., California agents for the limousine, seven-passenger, build on a special chassis, as the center of attraction. The "Master Six" chassis in nickel and enamel is the mechanical feature of the display. The Chalmers exhibit will be varied several times during the life of the exposition. The Grant Six is on the same floor with the Chalmers exhibit.

DOCTORS SAID HE HAD DROPSY

Some time ago I had an attack of grippe which finally settled in my kidneys and bladder. I doctored with the doctors and they claimed I had dropsy. I tried other remedies and got no relief from any of them. My condition was such that I was unable to work for about two months and the annoying symptoms caused me a great deal of trouble and pain. I was hardly able to turn over in bed. Seeing one of your Almanacs, I decided to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root a trial and after taking several bottles was able to resume my work again. I can not say too much in praise of your Swamp Root as the results in my case were truly wonderful.

Yours very truly,

I went on crutches for four months, then I started to use some of your liniment, according to your directions, and I must say that it is helping me wonderfully. I threw my crutches away. Only used two bottles of your Liniment and now I am walking quite well with one cane. I never will be without Sloan's Liniment."

The Borrowed Boy.
The circus is coming,
Delirious joy;
That I may attend it
I borrowed a boy.

His eyes will be saucers
When they shall behold
The spangled performers
All daring and bold.

His sides will be aching
As soon as he hears
The clown's mirthful sallies
Assailing his ears.

And whom am I taking
At cost of my pelf?
I borrowed the fellow
Who once was myself.
—McLanburg Wilson, in N. Y. Sun.

We gazed pityingly on the listless drug store clerk, leaning against the soda counter.
"Haven't you any ambition?" we inquired kindly and all that.
"No," he replied with brightening intelligence, "but I have something just as good."—Philadelphia Ledger.
